

Condolence Message

The unexpected passing of notable singer Mr. Zubeen Garg has created an unparalleled absence in music and within the hearts of innumerable fans. An emblematic figure of Assam and the broader nation, his profound voice and enduring compositions united individuals, surpassing linguistic and cultural divides.

Zubeen was an exceptionally talented singer and a fervent composer, lyricist, and actor who profoundly impacted lives through his artistry and modesty. His extraordinary journey has inspired countless generations and continues to echo among music enthusiasts across the globe. In this moment of sorrow, we reflect on the profound legacy he has bequeathed to us -a legacy that will endure, illuminating our lives through his melodies and artistic contributions. The profundity of such a loss is beyond the reach of mere words; however, his music will eternally serve as a poignant testament to his extraordinary talent.

The IASST community expresses profound sorrow at the premature passing of the esteemed singer Zubeen Garg, offering prayers to the Almighty for his soul's eternal repose and wishing fortitude for his family and admirers during this challenging period.
